Dear Mr. Sullivan, Secretary Blinken, Secretary Austin, Chairman Milley, Secretary Mayorkas, Director Haines, and Acting Director Young:

Based upon a recently released internal White House document, the Biden Administration was tragically unprepared for the Afghanistan withdrawal.¹ This document—dated August 14, 2021, with the subject line: “Summary of Conclusions for DSG [Deputies Small Group] Meeting on Relocations out of Afghanistan” [hereinafter Meeting Summary]—further demonstrates the Biden Administration—contrary to warnings—did not expect Kabul to fall so quickly and it did not have an exit strategy for American citizens, allies, military, or equipment in Afghanistan. In light of this document, we request the production of all documents and communications related to the Administration’s military and diplomatic withdrawal from Afghanistan.

The Biden Administration’s withdrawal from Afghanistan was an unmitigated national security and humanitarian disaster. At least 13 American servicemen and women and hundreds of Afghan civilians were killed.² Thousands of American citizens were abandoned.³ Billions of dollars in U.S. military equipment were lost.⁴ Meanwhile, for the first time in two decades, Afghanistan is again under Taliban control. Al-Qaeda is resurgent.⁵ Women and girls are being oppressed.⁶ U.S. allied-Afghans are being hunted down and publicly murdered.⁷ Despite efforts to shift blame, the Biden Administration’s utter lack of preparation caused these outcomes.

According to the Meeting Summary, the Biden Administration appears to have started relocation plans for U.S. government employees, American citizens, and U.S. allied Afghans only hours before the Taliban took over Kabul.⁸ This directly contradicts President Biden’s own public statements that he “[would] not conduct a hasty rush to exit,” would withdraw “responsibly, deliberately, and safely,” and that the Biden Administration “planned for every contingency.”⁹ Instead, the Biden Administration waited until August 14 to prioritize Americans for evacuation, to start notifying those eligible for evacuation, and to start identifying third party countries to screen and vet Afghans.¹⁰ The Taliban had control of Kabul, including Hamid Karzai International Airport, on August 15—just less than 24 hours later.

The Biden Administration knew—or should have known—that the Taliban had been engaged in a months-long offensive:

¹⁰ Memorandum, supra note 1.
May 4, 2021: Less than one month after President Biden announced an unconditional military withdrawal from Afghanistan, the Taliban began their offensive in southwest Afghanistan.

June 22, 2021: The Taliban controlled 50 of Afghanistan’s 370 districts.

July 21, 2021: The Taliban controlled the majority of Afghanistan’s districts.

August 6, 2021: The Taliban took command of the Nimruz province.

The Biden Administration had the warning signs that the Taliban were planning on seizing Kabul. Nevertheless, it appears the Biden Administration waited until August 14—one day before Kabul fell—to begin contingency planning. What ensued was a U.S. military withdrawal that has drawn apt comparison to the fall of Saigon.

The longer-term consequences continue to unravel. Americans are still stranded in Afghanistan and our allies’ lives remain in danger. The country is facing widespread starvation as it slides into economic collapse. As Afghanistan fails, it risks further destabilizing the region.

These ongoing consequences—especially in light of the August 14 Meeting Summary—necessitate Congressional oversight. Therefore, we request all documents, communications, and information referring or relating to the planning, implementation, and execution of the withdrawal of U.S. forces from Afghanistan as well as the evacuation of U.S. citizens, lawful permanent residents of the U.S., and vulnerable Afghans be produced as soon as possible but no later than March 1, 2022, for the time period of January 20, 2021, through present.

The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the principal oversight committee of the U.S. House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate “any matter” at “any time” under House Rule X. Thank you in advance for your cooperation with this inquiry.
